

A DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

Saturday evening, November 4th, Berriew Community Centre

FLATWORLD AND FRIENDS

*"Roots 'n' grooves from Eastern Europe and beyond"
"Magnificent tunes and kicking rhythm, played on fiddle, sax, guitar"*

An informal evening of world music with a trio from Flatworld, an acoustic Malvern-based band, who take tunes and songs from eastern European folk traditions (and elsewhere), and present them in a lively and accessible form. They have played on BBC Radio Shropshire, as well as at numerous festivals, including Birmingham Arts Fest, Malvern West Fest, Hay Literature Festival, Upton-upon-Severn Folk, and Glastonbury. And now they are coming to Berriew, so please do come along!

The trio will be running a workshop earlier in the day, and some of the participants may be joining them for part of the informal evening performance. Everybody's welcome. See October newsletter for further information, or email berrieworkshops@gmail.com (note only one 'w'.)